Order 1: To take charge of this post and all government property in view.

This order emphasizes responsibility. It underscores that the soldier is directly accountable for their designated area and all assets within sight. It fosters accountability, ensuring soldiers remain vigilant about the security of personnel, equipment, and classified information.

Order 2: To walk my post in a military manner, keeping always on the alert, and observing everything that takes place within sight or hearing.

This directive stresses discipline, alertness, and attentiveness. Soldiers are expected to maintain a professional bearing, stay vigilant, and be observant of any unusual activity, signs of threats, or security breaches.

Order 3: To report all violations of orders I am instructed to enforce.

Reporting misconduct or violations ensures adherence to military regulations. It helps maintain order and discipline, and prevents small infractions from escalating into larger issues.

Order 4: To repeat all calls from posts more distant from the guardhouse than my own.

This order ensures communication lines remain open and clear. It guarantees that messages from distant posts are relayed accurately, maintaining the chain of command and operational coherence.

Order 5: To quit my post only when properly relieved.

Order 10: To salute all officers and all colors and standards not cased.

This reflects military courtesy and respect for the uniformed hierarchy and national symbols.

Order 11: To be especially watchful at night, and during the time for challenging, to challenge all persons on or near my post, and to allow no one to pass without proper authority.

Night vigilance is critical, as visibility is limited. Proper challenging and authorization prevent unauthorized access.
